1 BACKGROUND INFORMATION

1.1 Country overview

Kenya is a country in East Africa bordering the Indian Ocean in Southeast, with the neighbouring countries of Ethiopia, Somalia, South Sudan, Tanzania, and Uganda. With an area of 580,000 km², Kenya has a population of 46 million people (2015). Spoken languages are Swahili and English (both official), and numerous indigenous languages mainly Kikuyu and Luhya.

The largest and most populous city and the national capital of Kenya is Nairobi, while the second largest city and the country's chief port is Mombasa.

Kenya has made significant political and economic reforms that have contributed to sustained economic growth, social development, and political stability gains over the past decade. However, its key development challenges still include poverty, inequality, transparency and accountability, climate change, continued weak private sector investment and the vulnerability of the economy to internal and external shocks.

Kenya ushered in a new political and economic governance system with the passage of a new constitution in 2010 that introduced a bicameral legislative house, devolved county government, and a constitutionally tenured judiciary and electoral body. The first election under this new system was held in 2013. A presidential election was held in August 2022.

From 2015 to 2019, Kenya's economy achieved broad-based growth averaging 4.7% per year, significantly reducing poverty (which fell to an estimated 34.4% at the $1.9/day line in 2019). In 2020, the COVID-19 shock hit the economy hard, disrupting international trade and transport, tourism, and urban services activity, in particular. Fortunately, the agricultural sector, a cornerstone of the economy, remained resilient, helping to limit the contraction in GDP to only 0.3%. In 2021, the economy staged a strong recovery, although some sectors, such as tourism, remained under pressure. GDP growth is projected at 5.0% in 2022 and the poverty rate has resumed its trend decline after rising earlier in the pandemic. Although the economic outlook is broadly positive, it is subject to elevated uncertainty, including through Kenya's exposure (as a net fuel, wheat, and fertilizer importer) to the global price impacts of the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

In 2017, Kenya adopted the country's new development blueprint covering the period 2008 to 2030: Kenya Vision 2030¹. It aims to transform Kenya into a newly industrialising, "middle-income country providing a high-quality life to all its citizens by the year 2030". Kenya Vision 2030 is based on three pillars: the economic, the social and the political.

The economic pillar aims to improve the prosperity of all Kenyans through an economic development programme, covering all the regions of Kenya and aiming to achieve an average Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth rate of 10%. The social pillar seeks to build a just and cohesive society with social equity in a clean and secure environment. The political pillar aims to realise a democratic political system founded on issue-based politics that respects the rule of law and protects the rights and freedom of every individual in Kenyan society.

In addition to aligning the country's long-term development agenda to Vision 2030, the President outlined the "Big Four" development priority areas for his final term as President prioritizing manufacturing, universal healthcare, affordable housing, and food security.

1.2 Sector situation

According to the World Bank², approximately half of Kenya's population is younger than 18, and more than three-quarters is younger than 35, with unemployment or underemployment being a crucial challenge for young men and women. Between 2015 and 2025, 9 million individuals are expected to enter the labour force.

A literature review on youth employment made in 2017 by the British Council³ stated that “youth would continue to exert a significant pressure on labour markets, and the share of the working-age population will keep rising accordingly: from 47 per cent in 1990 to 56 per cent in 2014, and an expected 62 per cent by 2050 [...] The question for 2030 and beyond is naturally whether Kenya will be able to reap the benefits of the youth bulge and increasing share of working-age population by creating productive jobs. According to the World Bank and the Kenya Population Census (2009), and confirmed by this literature review, the mix of unemployment, underemployment, inactivity, and poor quality jobs (informal, unskilled, and low-paid) still predominantly affects 15-24-year-old youth compared to the rest of the working age group – and will continue to do so, unless the Kenyan governments initiates systemic reforms”

Youth is a priority of the government of Kenya for the post-Covid strategy for employment. The idea of the one-stop-shop in Thika would be that it could be replicated nation-wide in case of success.

In line with the Sessional Paper n°4 of 2013 on Employment Policy and Strategy for Kenya, the government is committed to establish a one-stop database to reduce the cost of job search, recruitment and unemployment spell.

1.3 Role of partner institution in the sector

The National Employment Authority (NEA) was established on April 21st, 2016 by an Act of Parliament, to provide for a comprehensive institutional framework for employment management; enhancement of employment promotion interventions and increasing access to employment by the youth, minorities and marginalize groups for connected people.

The NEA operates a network of 30 public employment offices in Kenya. The functions of the Employment Offices include: promotion and monitoring employment creation programmes in the regions, collection and provision of labour market information, registration and placement of job seekers, provision of vocational information, guidance and employment counselling and registration of private employment agencies.

The National Employment Authority proposes to establish regional job centres to provide employment related services to both job seekers and employers. The overall goal is to increase access to job opportunities among the youth. It is foreseen that the Region Job Centres be located in areas where there are many industries starting with the major towns (Nairobi, Kisumu, Eldoret and Mombasa). The NEA also plans to provide mobile service where a van could be used to provide employment related services in various locations in consultation with prospective employers. The NEA has partially automated their services and is in the process of automating all the services.

3 METHODOLOGY

3.1 General methodology (of the action)

Youth is a priority of the government of Kenya for the post-Covid strategy for employment and access to decent jobs for youth is one of the objectives of the Vision 2030 for Kenya⁴. The Post Covid-19 Economic Recovery Strategy identified the establishment of regional job centres as one of the key initiatives to enhance employment opportunities in the country, especially for the youth.

To better implement the national policies on youth employment, the National Employment Authority (NEA) solicited SOCIEUX+ cooperation to support them to create a pilot one-stop-shop in employment services for youth in Thika, that could be replicated nation-wide in case of success.

This SOCIEUX+ action 2022-19 focuses on developing a strategy to set up this pilot one-stop-shop by first realizing a diagnostic of the National Employment Authority (NEA) for the establishment of Thika's one-stop-shop, focused on youth (Activity #1), then by jointly developing an operational strategic plan for the creation of the pilot one-stop-shop in Thika (Activity #2) and finally by developing a toolkit on youth counselling activities for job counsellors (Activity #3).

3.2 Planned activities (work plan of the action)

The following activities are currently planned for the action:

- Activity 1 – Diagnostic of the National Employment Authority for the establishment of Thika's one-stop-shop
- Activity 2 – Formulation of an operational strategic plan to address the most urgent needs of Thika's one-stop-shop
- Activity 3 – Development of a toolkit on youth counselling activities for job counsellors in Thika

The present terms of reference cover the services expected for activities of the above work plan:

- Activity #3. Development of a toolkit on youth counselling activities for job counsellors in Thika

⁴ Third Medium Term Plan 2018-2022, Kenya Vision 2030, published in 2018, in <http://vision2030.go.ke/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/THIRD-MEDIUM-TERM-PLAN-2018-2022.pdf>

3.3 Inclusion of cross-cutting issues

SOCIEUX+ recognises the importance to include cross-cutting issues in social protection, labour and employment policies and systems. The following cross-cutting issues are duly taken into account:

- Gender equality;
- Good governance;
- Social and economic inclusion of vulnerable groups.

4 ACTIVITIES DESCRIPTION

4.1 Tasks

The third and last on-site activity of the action 2022-19 will aim to compile knowledge materials and give the tools to the job counsellors to better accompany the young jobseekers in their search for jobs and application.

This activity will consist of developing a toolkit for the one-stop-shop's job counsellors on how to accompany young people in their labour market integration.

The topics that might be covered could be, among others:

- How to share relevant information on the labour market with youth job seekers: career guidance, matching job offers and demands...
- How to link the youth with employers: jobs fair, apprenticeship and internship programs, public-private partnerships...

ABOUT SOCIEUX+

The European Union (EU) promotes and maintains dialogue on social protection and inclusive employment policies with an increasing number of partner countries. This effort has been confirmed by the European Commission (EC) Communication COM (2016) 740 final - "Proposal for a new European Consensus on Development, entitled Our world, our dignity, our future. A significant number of cooperation initiatives in these fields are funded by geographic or thematic instruments of the EU in different countries. Those initiatives are highly structured and address the medium- to long-term needs of partner countries. However, short-term measures and peer-to-peer cooperation to promote the development of social protection systems are needed to complement the EU's cooperation with third countries. SOCIEUX+ - EU Expert Facility on Employment, Labour and Social Protection responds to this need.

The SOCIEUX+ Facility was established and funded by the EU through the European Commission's Directorate for International Partnerships (DG INTPA). The Facility is co-funded by France, Spain, and Belgium. It is implemented by a partnership composed of Expertise France (the partnership lead), Fundación Internacional y para Iberoamérica de Administración y Políticas Públicas (FIIAPP) from Spain, Belgian International Cooperation on Social Protection (BELINCOSOC), and the Belgian Development Agency (Enabel).

The general objective of the Facility is to expand and improve access to better employment opportunities and inclusive social protection systems in partner countries. Its specific objective is to enhance the capacities of partner countries to better design, manage and monitor inclusive, effective, and sustainable employment strategies and social protection systems through short-term, peer-to-peer technical assistance and knowledge development.

SOCIEUX+ recognises the impact of social protection and employment in reducing poverty and vulnerability. It supports the efforts of partner governments in promoting inclusive and sustainable social protection and employment systems. SOCIEUX+ also complements the efforts made through other European Union initiatives.

The Facility is an expansion of SOCIEUX Social Protection EU Expertise in Development Cooperation, established in 2013.
